WHEREAS, all sports and recreational activities involve inherent risks that provide the challenge and excitement that entice recreationists to participate in those activities; and

WHEREAS, recreationists should accept the risks inherent in sports and recreational activities and be responsible for injury or damage resulting from those inherent risks; and

WHEREAS, the state has a legitimate interest in maintaining the economic viability of the sports and recreational industries by discouraging claims based on damages resulting from risks inherent in a sport or recreational activity; and

WHEREAS, providers of recreational opportunities should not be required to alter the challenge and excitement of recreational activities by controlling risks inherent in the activities; and

WHEREAS, the liability of providers of recreational opportunities should be limited to negligence that is not associated with the inherent risks of a sport or recreational activity.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MONTANA:

Section 1. Short title. (1) [Sections 1 through 4] may be cited as the "Montana Recreation Responsibility Act".

(2) The legislature finds that sports and recreational activities are major industries in Montana and that among the attractions of sports and recreation are risks, inherent and otherwise. The state has a legitimate interest in maintaining the economic viability of the sports and recreational industries by discouraging claims based on damages resulting from risks inherent in sports and recreation.

(3) The purpose of [sections 1 through 4] is to limit or eliminate the liability of a provider of a sport or recreational opportunity to a sport or recreational participant when an injury or damage caused by or to the participant is the result of risks inherent in the sport or recreational opportunity.

(4) The legislature intends that [sections 1 through 4] be broadly construed to effectuate the purpose of [sections 1 through 4] to shield providers of a sport or recreational opportunity from liability for injuries and damages caused by the inherent risks of a sport or recreational activity.

Section 2. Definitions. As used in [sections 1 through 4], the following definitions apply:

(1) "Inherent risks" means those dangers or conditions that are characteristic of, intrinsic to, or an integral part of any sport or recreational activity and that cannot be prevented by the use of reasonable care.

(2) "Provider" means a person, other than a governmental entity, that promotes, offers, or conducts a sport or recreational opportunity, for profit or otherwise.

(3) "Sport or recreational opportunity" means any sporting activity, whether undertaken with or without permission, including but not limited to baseball, softball, football, soccer, basketball, bicycling, hiking, swimming, boating, hockey, dude ranching, nordic or alpine skiing, snow boarding, snow sliding, mountain climbing, river floating, whitewater rafting, canoeing, kayaking, target shooting, hunting, fishing, backcountry trips, horseback riding and other equine activity, snowmobiling, off-highway vehicle use, and any similar recreational activity.

Section 3. Limitation on liability in sport or recreational opportunity. (1) A person who participates in any sport or recreational opportunity assumes the inherent risks in that sport or recreational opportunity, whether those risks are known or unknown, and is legally responsible for all injury or death to the person and for all damage to the person's property that result from the inherent risks in that sport or recreational opportunity.

(2) A provider is not required to eliminate, alter, or control the inherent risks within the particular sport or recreational opportunity that is provided.

(3) [Sections 1 through 4] do not preclude an action based on the negligence of the provider if the injury, death, or damage is not the result of an inherent risk of the sport or recreational opportunity.

(4) [Sections 1 through 4] do not apply to a cause of action based on the design or manufacture of sports or recreational equipment or products or safety equipment used incidental to or required by the sport or recreational activity.

(5) The provisions of [sections 1 through 4] do not apply to governmental providers.

Section 4. Recreational activity -- applicability exceptions. [Sections 1 through 3] do not apply to duties, responsibilities, liability, or immunity related to:
